Old Mutual currently contributes 12.65% of your monthly pensionable earnings, of which currently 8.5% is directed to retirement funding, 2% to the Life Assurance Benefit, 1.15% to the Disability Income Benefit and 1% to administration costs.  Company Secretary Old Mutual Life Assurance Company (Namibia) Limited

Life Assurance Benefit:

The Life Assurance Benefit is provided via the Old Mutual Staff Retirement Fund.

Life assurance benefit cover is, in respect of each employee, such multiple of Pensionable earnings according to the table in force as at each policy anniversary. The table being based on the cover that can be provided by the premiums equal to 2% of annual pensionable earnings and as advised by the Underwriter to the Employer.

Where a Life assured is in receipt of a disability income from the Disability Benefit, the life assurance benefit payable hereunder shall be based on the life assurance benefit cover applicable immediately prior to the commencement of the waiting period in terms of such disability benefit.

Disability Income Benefit:

On appointment to Old Mutual, all new employees are automatically covered for the Disability Income Benefit without medical evidence of health being required. This automatic cover without evidence of health being required is currently limited to pensionable earnings (PEAR) of N$565 000 per annum (this amount is reviewed annually by the insurer and may change). Therefore, any Disability Income cover based on an income of N$565 000 and more needs to be approved by the insurer, and employees must undergo medical testing for this purpose, including an HIV test. Medical testing is however voluntary, and should the employee elect not to undergo medical tests in a situation where their PEAR meets or exceeds N$565 000 per annum, then the Disability Income Benefit, should the employee become disabled, will be limited to 76.5% of N$565 000 irrespective of the PEAR earned above this amount. This percentage is subject to change by the employer.

With the Disability Income Benefit, employees will be covered for Disability Income Benefits until age 55 by a policy of insurance with Old Mutual Group Assurance.

Should the employee be assessed by Old Mutual Group Assurance as being totally (temporary or permanently) disabled, the employee will receive a monthly Disability Income Benefit based on what can be provided by the contribution of Old Mutual of 1.15% of the employee's PEAR.

towards this benefit. This will currently provide a total monthly benefit of 76.5% of your PEAR. However, as the benefit is insured, the insurer has to conform to an industry requirement that currently stipulates a maximum benefit amount of N$100 000 per month.

Please ensure that you are familiar with the claims process and the process to be followed should you elect to be covered for additional Life Assurance Benefits. This information may be obtained from your Sales Manager.

Medical Aid Fund:

You are required to become a member of the Medical Aid Fund subject to the rules of this Fund, unless you are a dependent member on your spouse's/partner's medical aid and you wish to remain a dependent.
